

If one company owns all the air waves and newspapers it is rather like a monopoly it would seem to me. Sounds like a political thing also.